Presented by

The CSO Partners' Outstanding Annual Report Awards 2012 is a call for the voluntary sector to showcase their Annual Reports: the most important tool for demonstrating their work, best practices, accountability towards their stakeholders, and transparent processes. Recognizing the importance of Annual Reports in building organizational credibility, the CSO Partners' Outstanding Annual Report Awards applauds excellence in public disclosure through Annual Reports.

We invite organizations from the voluntary sector to submit their entries and participate in our endeavor to promote quality annual reports as a tool for building credibility. Entries adjudged winners shall receive cash prizes.

The awards ceremony will be held in March 2012 in New Delhi. The exact date of the ceremony will be communicated in due time.

AWARDS

Categories

The Awards have three categories for entries. Each category will be judged independently.

- If you are an NGO with an Annual Budget of under Rs 50 lakh, you will fall under the SMALL Category
- If you are an NGO with an Annual Budget between Rs 50 lakh and Rs 5 crore, you will fall under the MEDIUM Category
- If you are an NGO with an Annual Budget of over Rs 5 crore, you will fall under the LARGE Category

Criteria

Annual Reports will be judged on three broad criteria:

- Financial Reporting: Audited Financial information of the organization presented through a full set of statements and summarized in annual reports, thus representing a clear state of affairs.
- Transparency: Reporting on practices of the organization that display accountability and credibility.
- Effectiveness of Communication: Annual reports that communicate the impact of the organization, engage their donors, and are interesting to read.

Eligibility

In order to be eligible, your organization must be a registered non-profit entity in India and must be willing to submit three copies of your 2010-11 annual reports along with one copy of your complete audited financial statements.

CSO Partners would like to give all organizations an equal and fair opportunity to be winners and encourage wider participation from the voluntary sector in this prestigious Award. Hence, the following norms have been put in place:

- Organisations that have been 'Winners' for three consecutive years will move into the Outstanding Annual Report Awards Hall of Fame on a non competitive basis
- Organisations that have been 'Runner Up' for three consecutive years will move into the 'Hatrick Club' on a non competitive basis. They are however free to compete and improve their position from 'Runner Up' to 'Winner'

Assessment procedure

After a preliminary short-listing procedure, an independent panel of judges having expertise in the fields of financial management, communication, and public disclosure adjudge the winners based on a set of criteria.

PRIZES

Under each category, there are three prizes

Winner
Rs. 3,00,000

Two Runners Up
Rs. 1,00,000 each

Feedback

CSO Partners and FMSF took the initiative a step forward in 2011 by providing all shortlisted organizations with Score Cards and all nominated organizations with General Feedback on their Annual Reports. You can utilize the General Feedback document while preparing your Annual Reports.
